LIVING & KITCHEN

Every road home leads back to this kitchen. Homework on the island after school, dinner together in the evening, and so much storage the counters stay clear. The whole upper floor was renovated in 2021 and 2022: custom soft-close cabinets, quartz counters, two backsplashes, lighting under every cabinet and an island built for prep and a quick breakfast. When the day winds down, everybody ends up in the family room with the fireplace on, phones off, blankets out, one more episode before bed. The great room and dining room, with a second fireplace, are where the holidays happen.

THE ROOMS

Three bedrooms upstairs keep the family close, with a primary that has a walk-in closet and an ensuite with a soaker tub and a glass shower. Downstairs is a floor where teenagers find their own world: a front den with a gas fireplace and windows onto the forest, a fourth bedroom, a bonus room, a full bath and a 28 ft rec room with a wet bar and its own entry. Kids now, grandparents later, a guest suite whenever you need one.

THE GROUNDS

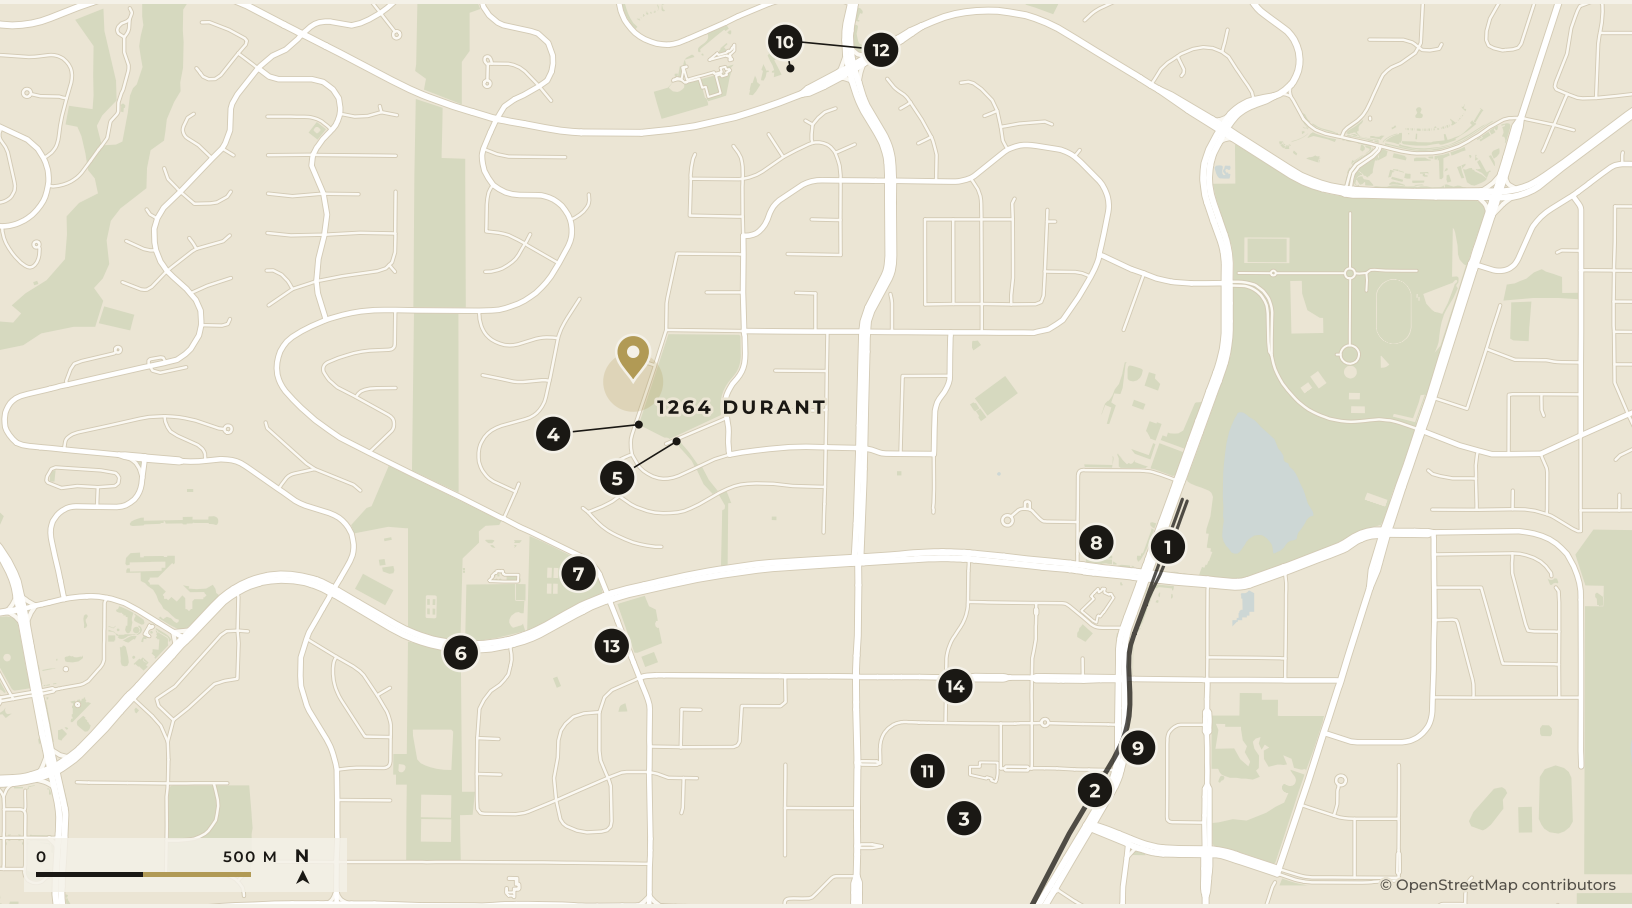

This one is all about privacy. Forest in front of you, trails behind you, and in between almost 10,000 sq ft of flat, fully fenced lawn with no trees in the way and tall, mature hedges on both sides. Stand at the back fence, go quiet, and you can hear Scott Creek running below; a gate opens onto the ravine trails. Let the dog out, let the kids run, put in a pool or a hot tub. Out front, the work is already done: a roof replaced a few years ago, fresh paint with black trim and garage doors, an aggregate driveway with no cracks and retaining walls that stand straight.
